The Dilmaghani Collection

Dilmaghani & Company traces its ancestry more than 140 years to the company's first headquarters and looms in Tabriz and its branch office in Kerman, Persia. Early Dilmaghani rugs still survive, readily identified by the House of Dilmaghani signature or the company's famous Cyrus Crown trademark hand-knotted as part of the rug border

Today's Dilmaghani Collection spans Classic Persian antique carpets thru modern counterparts made in India, Turkey, Pakistan China and Tibet.

For new, antique or semi-antique rugs and carpets, let Dilmaghani direct the search for your next client's request.

Dilmaghani has one of the largest and most varied inventories of Oriental rugs in the US.
